

Medical Ethnobotany
Quiz #9

1. What are two different ways that Polynesian healers are trained?
2. What are two of the top five indications for Polynesian medicinal plants?
3. What are two key differences between traditional and modern usage of psychoactive plants?
4. Name and describe one toxidrome.
5. Name and describe one traditional pattern of thinking about the activity of medicines that has helped shape American cultural usage of medicinal plants.
6. What is a primary diagnosis for which medicinal plants are used in the US as emphasized in lecture.
7. Darrell Posey outlined three accomplishments that must occur in order for native peoples Intellectual Property Rights to be secured. State one of them and why it is important.
8. Lewis & Elvin-Lewis discuss a 60,000 year old Neanderthal grave site that is surrounded by seven medicinal plants. Name one of the plants.
9. What are two of the five types of complementary and alternative medicine recognized by the National Institutes of Health?
10. Lewis & Elvin-Lewis discuss at length one "PAT" plant. What is this plant and why is it so important?